

CLASS IV
SOCIAL STUDIES
Chapter 11

A) Tick the correct options

1. Aluminium
2. Coal
3. Mines
4. Iron
5. Steel and iron.

B) Fill in the blanks

1. Two
2. Bauxite
3. Karnataka
4. Sulphur
5. Coal

C. Name any two places

1. Rajasthan, Kerala
2. Jamshedpur, Rourkela
3. Jharkhand, West Bengal
4. Assam, Gujarat
5. Mumbai, Chennai

D) Answer these questions

1. What is a mineral ore?

Ans: A minerals from which metals are obtained is called ores.

2. Minerals are divided into two groups. Name them and give two examples of each of them.

Ans: Minerals are divided into two groups

Metallic and non metallic metals.

Example of metallic metals are- steel and iron, manganese

Example of non metallic metals are- coal and petroleum.

3) Why is coal called the black diamond of India?

Ans: Coal is called Black diamond of India because of it used for a variety of purposes and it is also the main source of energy in India.

4) Differentiate between metallic and non metallic minerals.

Ans: Metallic

- metal elements are present
- good conductors of electricity
- e.g iron, silver, bauxite etc

Non metallic

- absent of metal
- good insulators of electricity
- e.g coal, petrol.