

CLASS-V NOTES

ENGLISH-II

L=12 A Fishy Story

A. Read the sentences and answer the question

1.

Ans-a) The old fellow spoke these words.

The speaker and his listeners were sitting inside the little riverside inn.

Ans-b) By 'him' the speaker referred to the trout.

Ans-c) According to the speaker, the fish weighed a little more than eight kilograms.

Ans-d) The local carrier came in after the speaker left.

2.

Ans-a) The narrator said these words to his friend George.

Ans-b) George fell down on top of the trout-case which made the speaker to say these words.

Ans-c) When the listener got up, they saw that the trout break up into little pieces.

Ans-d) From this incident, they learned the truth that the fish was not a real fish and it was made of plaster of paris.