

CLASS IV - SOCIAL STUDIES - CHAPTER 8 (INDIA- FOREST AND WILDLIFE)

A) Tick the correct options

1. moonsoon forest
2. thorn
3. Rosewood
4. Evergreen forest
5. Van mahotsava

B) fill in the blanks

1. Forest
2. Erosion
3. Mangrove
4. Rocky region
5. Sal and teak

C) Match the following

1. Gir- Gujarat
2. Corbett- uttarakhand
3. Kanha- madhya pradesh
4. Periyar- Kerela
5. Kaziranga and manas- Assam

D) Name the following

1. Carbon dioxide
2. One fifth
3. (Not required)
4. Van mahotsava
5. Ganga Brahmaputra delta

E. Answer the questions

1. (Not required)

2. How are forest important to us?

Ans- Forest are important because they give us oxygen and help in with precipitation.

They provide shelter to variety of animals. Forest are very useful in preventing soil erosion.

Forest also provide us with food, wood for building house.

3. Where are evergreen forest found in India?

Ans- In India evergreen forest are found in Kerala, Karnataka, Jaintia and Khasi hills, Andaman and Nicobar Islands.

4. (Not required)

5. How many sanctuaries and national parks are in India?

ans- there are 441 wildlife sanctuaries and 80 national parks.