

ENGLISH II. LESSON 7, A SCRIBE'S DREAM

EX.B QUESTION AND ANSWER

Ans 1) The scribe was proud of the fact that he had never borrowed money from the moneylender no matter how difficult it was for him to feed his family.

Ans 2) The scribe's greatest worry was that his lack of money would make him fall into the hands of the moneylender.

Ans 3) After the scribe's wife told her friends of her husband's dream, a few of them shared it to their husbands. Soon the story spread and reached the moneylender's ears.

Ans 4) The scribe's wife idea was to beg Raja Birbal to help them. She believes that it is only Raja Birbal that can save them from utter ruin.

Ans 5) After hearing the scribe's tale of woe Birbal brought out a bag of gold coins and counted out a hundred. Then he placed a large mirror in front of the coins and instructed the scribe to call the moneylender.

EX. C

Ans) The moneylender realized that he had met his match after Birbal told him that all the coins in the reflection could be taken in return for the dream loan but the real coins belong to him.
